CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor Donna K. Manocchio

One: We have gathered here this morning to worship God.

Many: We have come seeking comfort, inspiration, community and insight.

One: We have come to open ourselves to the power of God’s presence in our midst.

Many: We have come to offer up the seasons and the turnings in our lives.

One: We have come to ask God to help in our learning and in our growing.

All: Let us worship God, the one who is the source of every blessing.

* HYMN

“Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above”

Pilgrim Hymnal #20

*PRAYER OF INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

O God, we use calendars extensively to set our schedules, to remember special events, and to mark the passing of time. We ask that you help us to use our calendars as instruments of spiritual growth. Remind us that a busy schedule is more oppressive than impressive if it crowds out occasions of prayer and reflection. Teach us to regard each dawn as the beginning of a holy day and to identify every deed as an opportunity for serving you. Inspire us to rejoice in the expanse of time as we live within it and look ahead to its promised never-ending. Giver of our daily bread, Eternal God, we extend to you our gratitude and praise. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray and with the words he teaches us to say together we pray,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Starting with the last Sunday of this month, August 29, we will be inserting a card in each floral arrangement, whether they are taken home by the donor or brought to someone who is ill, home bound or in a health care facility. The wording on the card is very meaningful as follows:

These flowers have been to church. They have heard the hymns that have been sung, the prayers that have been offered, and the sermon that has been preached.

Now, with their silent message of hope, they come to you with our love and best wishes.

Rocky Hill Congregational Church
United Church of Christ

Thanks to Gail Tine, Donna and Carol Harvey for all of their help in bringing this lovely addition to our weekly floral arrangements.

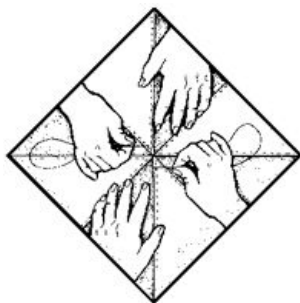

Joan Diaz, Floral Committee

SCRIP-SURE: As previously announced, the deadline for Scrip orders has been moved back to next week, September 5 – with delivery on September 12. However, some extra cards are available today for Big Y, Stop & Shop, and West Side Market. See Gail Hall (in Chapin Hall) if you want some.

CALLING ALL BOWLERS!!! – There is a sign-up sheet in Chapin Hall for Bowling. We'd like to have 20 full-time bowlers. Folks can sign-up for one of the remaining team slots or as a sub. If you can work it out with a partner, we also can have two people share one team spot and bowl every other week or split the season like in Todd Doten and Kim Batterson Biglow. Todd bowls the first half of the season and then Kim bowls the 2nd half when his job gets busy with the tax season. Its lots of fun!

QUILT TICKETS WILL BE AVAILABLE NEXT WEEK IN CHAPIN HALL
WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!!

The quilt is almost finished and is just beautiful. Quilt tickets will be available on Sunday, September 5th. It would be a BIG HELP if the members of the congregation would be willing help sell them. It would be even better if each family would purchase a book of 10 tickets for $10 and sell another book to family or friends. We have 1500 tickets and if we all get involved as a church family we can help the quilters sell out. If you are a church member who would like to help out with the fair in some small way but do not have the time, here is your chance to help! Someone will be in Chapin Hall next week signing out books of 10. Thank you in advance for your willingness to say "YES!"
