Director of Music / Church Organist

The Rocky Hill Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, a vibrant and musically diverse open and affirming church, seeks a part-time (less than 20 hours) Director of Music / Church Organist. We place high value on our music programs as part of our worship experience and seek someone to help us continue to grow our talents and faith.

As the primary organist and choir director, the Director serves as a resource to support, foster, and coordinate the worship and spiritual life of the congregation through congregational, choral and instrumental music. As a member of the professional staff, the Director of Music works with the clergy, staff and volunteers to plan and coordinate worship services and related activities.

We seek an individual who will nurture and support the diverse musical talents and interests of our congregation. The position will have direct responsibility for our senior choir and our handbell choir. The church also currently has a youth choir, a drum choir, an orchestra, a Dixieland jazz combo, and a gospel band, all which are organized and led by volunteers in the church.

We seek a person with a BA or equivalent education. Musical experience in a Church setting is desired. The successful candidate will have the ability to and interest in promoting many forms of music in the Church's musical ministry. He or she will have excellent "people" skills.

A job description for the position may be seen by going to:
<http://rhccucc.org/musicsearch>.

Compensation will be based on the education and experience of the candidate. Health, vacation or pension benefits are negotiable as a component of compensation.

By Friday, April, 20, 2012, please send a resume with cover letter either:
