All are Welcome!

Many may not know that I have a thing for cemeteries. I love cemeteries. When I was growing up in Meriden, which has no shortage of really old gravestones, our family would sometimes stop on the way somewhere and look at an old cemetery. That interest has continued all my life. I find it interesting to look at the carvings on the stones, and perhaps learn about the people buried there.

Years ago I stopped at a cemetery in Massachusetts. I walked around and looked for the oldest part, as I always do. In a row on the edge of the cemetery there were several vaults built into an embankment. The openings had metal doors, and some were blocked up with brick. One of them was missing the door, and you could see into the vault. I remember walking slowly up to the vault to get a closer look, and very cautiously looked inside. I didn't go in, however. It was dark inside and the vault was in the shade so I couldn't see much of anything.

What I experienced was fear. Fear of what? Bones? An animal living in the vault? Or, fear of something bigger, such as death itself?

A part of Easter involves fear. The disciples experienced fear on Easter. Mark tells us that the disciples went to the tomb but then ends (despite an ending being added later) that they ran away in fear. No Jesus, no angels, just fear.

This, to my mind, is the most human of Easter stories. We experience fear when we face the unknown. It's ok. Jesus experienced fear in the Garden of Gethsemane. Fear is a primal instinct. We experience it in unfamiliar circumstances. Our animal brains know that unfamiliar circumstances could present danger.

Rationally, there was nothing for me to fear looking into the tomb. I was afraid, though, on a visceral level. We all fear what we don't understand.

Despite our fears, we can trust in God to be with us. New life is what Easter offers. It is new life given in grace. Still, we can experience fear in the light of new life. What if I have to change? What if I have to do or see things differently? Will I be able to adapt? All valid questions born out of fear.

God is with us through all of our fears, both great and small. As Easter approaches, let us celebrate the God who is with us through all of our fears.

In Christ,

Pastor Craig

Psalm 118.26

Maundy Thursday

Thanks to the generosity of many here at RHCC, the High School Youth Group has raised enough funds to go on the summer Mission Trip to Louisiana! We will continue to hold fundraisers however, because next year, our little group of five teens will become fourteen as a large group of 8th graders move into high school. And they are looking forward to a trip in 2018.

I believe youth mission trips are the best way for today's busy teens to engage their faith – to pull the pieces together as they encounter new and demanding situations every day for a week – to experience and identify the grace of God in their lives – to discover their gifts, their likes and dislikes – to feel a sense of call – to become confident bearers of God's love. Though we go with a purpose to help others, inevitably we return feeling that we have been the ones who were helped, that our lives have been changed, in a good way, forever.

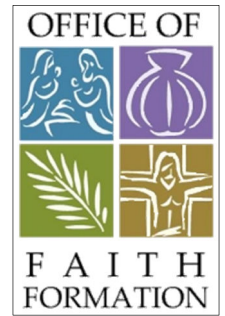

I want to share with you how one young person was changed because of a mission trip. In 2007, I took a group from Westport to San Francisco, where we were immersed in urban and environmental projects. We met with a friend of mine, one of the first women ordained in the Presbyterian Church, who had spent a lifetime ministering to folks in San Francisco's notorious Tenderloin district. She talked to the youth about her new project: rescuing women and girls from human trafficking. One of the youth was so impressed by this talk that she began learning more on her own about human trafficking and developed a major art work in response. As an Advanced Placement Studio Art student, she submitted her work to the College Board, as did 37,000 other students from around the world. Her work was chosen from among all these by the College Board to represent 3-D Art on its 2011 poster. Especially poignant was her use of trash to create the work – a statement of how victims of human trafficking are used and discarded like trash.

Because of a youth mission trip, human trafficking in America was exposed in a powerful way to thousands of people. Other youth I know have also been similarly inspired to change or better the lives of hundreds they have met. RHCC's support of youth mission trips will have long lasting effects, not just for the attendees but for those in their spheres of influence. Each of your gifts, whether prayers or finances, helps to make all this possible.

S.P.I.R.I.T. Church School News

Here is our upcoming schedule:

On April 9, Pre-K to 5th graders will learn about Holy Week, and from April 23 to May 14 they will study “Road to Emmaus.”

They will have an opportunity to

- explore the story of the walk to Emmaus;
- think about ways that we “meet” Jesus today;
- consider how we can share the joy of Jesus’ resurrection with others.

Grades 6-8 will study the following:

- April 2 – “Suffering”
- April 9 – “Death (Jesus’ Death)”
- April 23 – “Trust”
- April 30 – “The Holy Spirit”

On Holy Saturday we will host an egg hunt, family activities and a simple worship service. There will be no church school on Easter Sunday, April 16.

If you are able and willing to teach Grades 6-8, let Georgette or Kathy Morgan know.

High School Youth Group

On March 5, we enjoyed dinner at the Gobi Mongolian Grill in Southington, and on March 19, we attempted the Test Quest escape room challenge (and succeeded!). On April 2, we will hold the Taco-in-a-Bag fundraiser.

Middle School Youth Group

On February 26, we finally got to see the movie Hidden Figures. On March 26, we will try the Test Quest escape room challenge. From April 7-8, we will have an overnight at the church.

Save the date and your stomachs for the Taco-in-a-Bag Fundraiser!

to benefit the High School Youth Group mission trip to Louisiana and future trips.

Sunday, April 2 after worship

Scrip-Sure: April Schedule Alert

When the Hall's go on vacation, there are usually several others who are already trained and available to step in to sell scrip. But this month, all vacations seem to be colliding. So, it is likely that scrip will not be sold on the two Sundays after Easter – April 23 and April 30. Consequently, you may want to consider stocking up by Easter Sunday.

Scrip sales will resume on Sunday, May 7. As previously announced, that will also be the weekend that we place the “end of April” order for cards that are not kept in inventory.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

As a member of the RHCC audit committee, I've had the opportunity to spend the last few weeks reviewing our Board for Missions work for the past two years.

Since I'm new to this endeavor, I solicited the help of Charlie Kuchenbrod, Executive Associate Conference Minister of the Connecticut Conference United Church of Christ. Here's what I discovered - I'm learning a lot and I'm finding the use of our Board for Missions funds impressive.

The majority of our Missions outlays goes directly to UCC Agencies at the national and state level. I find this comforting in that UCC Central (Our Church's Wider Mission - OCWM) and the UCC Connecticut Conference have the resources and expertise to ultimately direct member church funds where they get the most "bang for the buck", ie: ("do the most good"; help the most/neediest people/organizations).

After UCC funding, our next biggest Missions beneficiary is The Christian Activities Council (CAC). Specifically through their “Adventures in the City Freedom School” summer program. From what I've read online, this 6 week summer program for economically disadvantaged Greater Hartford youths is a highly commendable endeavor that is certain to yield high “societal dividends”.

The main three RHCC Missions beneficiaries; OCWM, CT Conference & Christian Activities Council's "Adventures in the City" account for ~ 2/3 of the RHCC Missions disbursements.

After "The Big 3" there's a potpourri of a couple dozen beneficiaries ranging from the local food pantry to the Sioux Indian Reservation (Hawkwing). These beneficiaries are hand-picked by the RHCC Missions Board and reflect our own unique contributions to Christian service.

Great job Missions!

RHCC Mission News

In April, the Board for Missions will be preparing Emergency Cleanup Buckets for CWS (Church World Service). UCC Disaster Ministries has offered matching grants to UCC congregations that assemble Emergency Cleanup Buckets. These buckets equip people after a flood, tornado or other disaster. They include practical household materials like clothesline, work gloves, dust masks and insect repellent.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

"For families that have lost everything, CWS Emergency Cleanup Buckets and other CWS Kits are more than just relief supplies, they are an expression of love and a symbol of hope for the future," said Zach Wolgemuth, UCC Disaster Ministries executive. Please see Kari, email kariblaise@hotmail.com or call at 860-803-4852 if you have any questions. Stay tuned for the date in April when buckets will be assembled.

Since its formation in 1957, the United Church of Christ has worked with Church World Service (founded in 1946) to accomplish more together than it could alone, joining hearts and resources to create a tradition of help and a legacy of hope. When disaster strikes, Church World Service is the primary agency through which the UCC gives support for relief and recovery efforts.

Help Wanted June 16-17

Greeters, Ushers, and “Smilers”

Bob Inderbitzen is seeking volunteers from churches throughout the region to help welcome delegates and visitors to Hartford for the historic joint Annual Meeting of the Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island Conferences of the United Church of Christ. The Annual Meeting will be held June 16-17, 2017 at the Connecticut Convention Center. Bob has agreed to help chair the Hospitality Team, and is eager to find volunteers to help welcome over 1,000 people to Hartford!

Why would I want to volunteer? This is a very special and historic gathering of our wider church family to Hartford. We want to welcome our sisters and brothers of the United Church of Christ, delegates and visitors, to our “backyard.” Please help!

What will volunteers do? Volunteers will be assigned a short 3-hour shift on Friday and/or Saturday, to help greet convention attendees throughout the beautiful Connecticut Convention Center and the adjoining Marriott Hotel. Some volunteers will help direct people to activities. Others will serve as ushers during the huge worship services. Most importantly, you’ll be a smiling face of WELCOME to all who attend this historic meeting. Volunteers will receive training (easy) and information to help you.

What do I have to do to volunteer? (1) Contact Bob Inderbitzen, telephone 860-418-9171 or email rinderbitzen@cox.net with your interest to volunteer on Friday and/or Saturday. (2) All volunteers must complete an online registration to attend the Annual Meeting: www.ctucc.org/TriConAm. The registration fee is $85 and includes entry to the event on both days, and access to all of the exhibits, worship events, presentations and keynote speaker, and

April Report of the Trustees

As part of a plan to improve security and surveillance at the church, we are installing surveillance cameras in the main and upstairs hallways. The cameras are motion activated, and we will have file storage for 7 days surveillance video. We expect to be taking additional steps, but we are still gathering information on new locks and other security measures. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact Dave Sageman.
