You'll probably be reading this newsletter during Holy Week. Easter, as you know, is on April 1. An odd day for Easter. I think it's happened one other time in my career.

April 1, of course, is known as April Fools Day. The origin of April Fools Day is obscure, and it probably goes back into the Middle Ages. So much for that. This is a day that many observe by playing practical jokes on people. It's a time-honored tradition. In the 1850's in Great Britain, the public was invited to attend the annual "Washing the Lions" day at the Tower of London Zoo. Of course, it didn't actually happen.

There's no theological content in April Fools Day, and its coincidence with Easter is a curious one. However, there are connections. If we consider the events of Holy Week and Easter there are a lot of surprises, the most significant one being the Resurrection itself.

We wonder about how the Resurrection happened. There is a lot of debate over whether Jesus' physical body came back to life after enduring a gruesome and excruciatingly painful death. Other theories include the thought that Jesus didn't actually die on the cross, and he recovered enough in the cool air of the tomb to emerge on the first Easter. Some have come up with the theory that Jesus' spirit was raised but his body wasn't.

A lot of speculation swirls around the Shroud of Turin, believed by many to be the burial cloth of Jesus. An exhaustive study of the cloth in the 70's and 80's concluded that the image was not painted, but that it dated from the Middle Ages. Around 2005 a discovery was made that cast the Carbon 14 test in doubt. The areas from which the samples were taken were shown to be partly the original linen and partly a cotton patch woven in to repair a corner of the cloth, and this skewed the results. This is a very complicated issue and we don't have time for it now, but the Shroud clearly shows the body of a man who was crucified. Was it Jesus? We'll never know for sure. Possibly. Those who believe that the shroud is genuine also see it as proof of the resurrection of Christ.

For many Christians the bodily resurrection of Jesus is essential to the Christian faith. I feel that the boldness of the disciples in proclaiming their new faith had to be founded in a substantive experience of the resurrected Christ somehow. It had to be more than just a vision. What happened, exactly? Something otherworldly, apparently. What we do know is that the disciples were given the strength to proclaim a new faith that spread like wildfire across the Mediterranean basin and beyond. We're the beneficiaries of that determination.

In Christ,

Pastor Craig

RHCC Missions Update

In March, the following contributions were made on behalf of our congregation. Through your generosity, we're changing lives...here, near, and far.

$3,500 – Adventures in the City Freedom School (same as last year). Last year, this program provided six weeks of full-day summer enrichment free of charge to 100 of Hartford's most vulnerable children in grades k-3. Bob Inderbitzen attended the student-graduation/celebration last summer. It's an impressive program, and our donation fulfills our ongoing support for the good work of the Christian Activities Council in Hartford.

$600 – Center Church Community Meal. This money was used to purchase $10 gift cards for 60 people served by this community meal on Sunday, March 11. Center Church in Harford (a short 7-minute ride from our church!) regularly hosts these meals which serve our poor neighbors and people experiencing homelessness. Minister for Children and Youth Georgette Huie organized youth and adult volunteers from our church to help prepare and serve the meal. Georgette shared "I could see that the gift cards lifted their spirits in that moment, and am confident that when they go to spend the card, they will experience a moment of dignity, being able to rightfully pay for a treat or a necessity of their choosing."

$360 – Global Ministries Child and Elder Sponsorship (same as last year). This is our second year supporting a sponsored-elder, Mrs. Yangkey. She lives in Zongri, Tibet, and receives all of her help through the Tibetan Refugee Self Help Centre. Please keep Mrs. Yangkey in your prayers.

$1,000 – Back Bay Mission. This continues our annual commitment to this important ministry in Biloxi, Mississippi. Members of our congregation have traveled to Bay Back Mission for multiple mission trips. Please learn more about Back Bay Mission, and their simple mission on the Gulf Coast: to strengthen neighborhoods, seek justice, and transform lives: thebackbaymission.org

And, please watch for these upcoming "mission" opportunities:

April 1, Easter Sunday – Special Collection for The Connecticut State Veterans' Home in Rocky Hill. The monies will be used to purchase washer/dryer combos and other items and supplies for residents served by the Home. Please use the Easter offering envelopes (mailed to members) or indicate "Easter Offering" on your check or online donation.

May 5 (Saturday) – Foodshare Walk Against Hunger. Join Our Walk Team! We'll start at the church at 8 AM for breakfast. The Walk begins at 10 AM at Dunkin' Donuts Park in Hartford. Use the sign-up form found elsewhere in this newsletter.

THANK YOU from the Board for Missions: Heather Collins, Anita Hawkins, Bob Inderbitzen (co-chair), Marge Murk, Elaine Sellenberg, Sue Speers, Wendy Ware (co-chair), and Benevolence Treasurer Kathy Morgan.

S.P.I.R.I.T. Church School News

On March 11, four of our middle school youth and five adults spent three hours at Center Church in Hartford cooking and serving the Sunday Community Meal. In just those three hours, we made a nutritious complete meal for 60 homeless and poor folks, including two families with young children. We were helped earlier by 4th grader Mollie Engel and her family, who baked delicious chocolate chocolate chip cookies for the dessert. Mollie had been asking her mom if she could serve in some way, and this was a perfect fit. Mollie's a great baker!

The youth came away from this experience wanting to do it again, soon. They saw and heard how the meal we made was so badly needed by the guests. They also saw how grateful people were, and how supportive and encouraging they were of the youth. Our group worked together in a truly intergenerational way, with adults and youth sharing all aspects of the tasks at hand: prepping, mixing, serving, washing. There was also opportunity for interacting with the guests, and our youth did not hesitate to do just that.

The Board for Missions, represented by Wendy Ware and Bob Inderbitzen, brought 60 gift cards ($10 each) which were given to each guest. I saw the looks of surprise, delight, and gratitude on the recipients' faces as they received their cards, and imagined the moments of dignity they would feel when paying for a treat or a necessity of their choosing.

Formerly homeless people talk of how such care and effort by volunteers gave them hope. In turn, our team, adults and youth alike, came away with a sense of purpose fulfilled and a sense that somehow, this was a really cool way to spend three hours.

Perhaps, because of our youth, participating in this meal will become a regular habit for RHCC.

Here is our upcoming schedule:

Church School

There will be no church school on April 1, Easter Sunday.

From April 8-29, grades Pre-K through 5th grade will be learning about communion, in a unit called “The Lord’s Supper.” They will experience

- the Lord’s Supper through the telling and hearing of the story.

Grades 6-8 will focus on the following topics: Encountering Jesus (The Road to Emmaus), Trust (Jesus and the Disciples), Waiting (The Ascension), and The Holy Spirit (Pentecost).

If you are willing to teach a church school class, please contact Georgette or Stephanie Heneghan.

Youth Groups

The High School Youth Group will hold its Taco-in-a-Bag fundraiser on April 29.

The Middle School Youth Group will observe Earth Day on April 22 by cleaning up somewhere.

Easter Offering for our Veterans

The Board of Missions has designated the Veterans Home in Rocky Hill for this year’s special Easter offering. The monies will be used to purchase washer & dryer combos for some of the residents. The offering will be collected during worship on Easter Sunday, or can be mailed to the church, or donated online at rhcucc.org. Please designate your gift as “Easter Offering.” And, thank you for helping us serve our neighbors...here, near, and far.

Governance Update: Thanks to all who attended the Budget & Elections meeting and supported the ratification of the proposed Constitution, which passed unanimously. We are also thrilled that Nominating was able to bring forward a complete slate of nominees for Officers, Core and Support Ministries, and Standing Committees. Now the work begins! The Governance Committee plans to continue facilitating the transition process, with the next emphasis on the recruitment and organization of Ministry Teams. Watch for further info in upcoming bulletins, emails, and newsletters.

Please join us for a Second Hour program after worship on Sunday, May 6th to learn more about our congregation's relationship with Covenant to Care. We will welcome Catherine Haugh, the organization's regional director, to meet with us. We have a Covenant to work with a social worker to directly assist in meeting the needs of youth. In the past, we have provided school supplies, Christmas gifts, clothing and gift cards for children in the program. A light lunch will be provided. For more information, see Heather Collins.

APRIL WORSHIP – SUNDAYS AT 10:00 A.M.

Icon of the Week

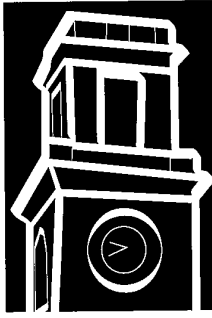

For the Easter season, which extends until Pentecost, there will be a different icon related to Easter each week in the Weil Chapel. Please stop by for a few minutes of contemplation as we celebrate the resurrection of Christ and the gift of restoration and renewal. The first icon is a copy of one painted in Russia around 1650.

The season of Easter, or Eastertide, begins at sunset on the eve of Easter and ends on Pentecost, the day we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church. Today, this extended season gives us time to rejoice and experience what it means when we say Christ is risen.

Sound Healing Meditation with Tibetan Singing Bowls Thursday, April 19, 7pm, Weil Chapel

Singing bowls developed in the region of Tibet a long time ago. These instruments have been found to positively affect the body on many levels. The vibrations soothe the nervous system and invite the release of tight muscles, stress, anxiety, PTSD and depression. The healing vibrations of the singing bowls can uplift the spirit, relax the body and quiet the mind. Come and see what it can do for you, and bring a friend! Free-will food offerings support the Rocky Hill Food Bank.
