SERVE AT RHCC

Another year has passed.....

And it is the time to give prayerful consideration to the ways we can each serve our church community. There are opportunities on every board and committee. The commitments vary greatly but every role is important to the life of the church. In the upcoming month the nominating committee will distribute a list with explanations and descriptions of all the opportunities to become more active in our church life.

Talking, Listening, Praying

On the whole, we are a pretty talkative society. Besides any in-person words we might speak to other people, face-to-face or over a telephone, we also “talk” by texting, tweeting, e-mailing, blogging, facebooking. There are more forms than ever before for us to get our own words out there, to make ourselves heard. Not that this is bad (unless it degenerates into a me-me-me mindset). It’s just that speaking is only half of communication.

The other half is listening. This we are not as good at. Even when we are in conversation with other people and we appear to be listening to them, often all we’re really doing is waiting until it’s our turn to talk again. Listening holds the potential for changing us by what we hear, so it’s more risky: at least when we’re the ones speaking, we can feel as though we’ve got some control.

This is one more way, among so many others, that Christian spirituality asks of us something counter-cultural – that we learn to see and do things differently from the way the world generally sees and does them. It aims to make us listeners first: to God, to God’s creation, to the Holy Spirit deep within us, to each other. But mostly to God. Or for God. Prayer is, in fact, that: listening for God. So many times we back away from even the thought of prayer, because we don’t know it’s listening, we think it’s speaking. So, we think it needs to be covered in words, beautiful words, the exactly right words, at exactly the right time, words we think other people would admire. And mostly we just don’t have it in us to produce such words that, in our own minds, would qualify on all those counts.

There is a story told about an exchange Mother Teresa once had with a reporter, who had asked her about praying: “What do you say to God?” “I don’t say anything,” she replied. “I listen.” “Then what does God say to you?” “God doesn’t say anything,” she replied. “God listens.” Confused, the reporter then asked, “How can you pray, when both you and God do nothing but listen?” Mother Teresa responded, “Explaining that would take far longer than you have time for.”

It is easy to confuse the saying of words with praying. There, I’ve said my prayer. But just because we’re doing one doesn’t mean we’re necessarily doing the other, yet. There is in each of us a contemplative heart and mind that do not need to produce words, especially not on cue, because they’re wired for a kind of deep and wordless listening for the Sacred Other, that can awaken any time, anywhere. Even – especially -- in the midst of as chronically talkative a world as ours.

Try it.

Faithfully,
Rev. Brenda

FAITH FORMATION @ RHCC

S.P.I.R.I.T. Corner Check-in: Church School

On January 5th, the children and youth of the S.P.I.R.I.T. Church School beautifully lead worship, as they shared the birth story of our faith in word and song, with our annual Epiphany Pageant. (See pictures below).

We have started our 3rd faith formation unit of the year, Praying With Jesus. We are studying the Lord's prayer. Jesus' words recorded in both Matthew and Luke, were a response to a request from his disciples: "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus' reply has become a central, virtually unchanged piece of our Christian worship. The prayer is spoken on behalf of others, and echoes with voices from the past, present, and future. The emphasis is on community, rather than self. Through this concern for others, expressed in prayer, we can feel connected with God.

Check out the "What We're Learning Now" box for more information about our current faith formation unit, "Praying with Jesus", and learn with us!

Youth Group

All Youth Group events for the year will be open to 6th-12th graders, and when appropriate 6th-8th graders and 9th-12th graders will break off for separate discussion groups. We will meet several times throughout the year for Youth Group Night Out events and service projects. On Sundays following church, Noah's Table meets to discuss current events, worship, and eat.

GROW YOUR FAITH & GET INVOLVED WITH S.P.I.R.I.T.

Training and lesson plans are always provided. If you are interested in getting involved in this ministry please contact Meghan Young at meghan@rhccucc.org.

S.P.I.R.I.T. CHURCH SCHOOL – What We're Learning Now!

COME JOIN THE CIRCLE: Unit 3 – Praying With Jesus

Exploring Prayer

This unit explores how to pray. Explore prayer. You may use the following devotionals to restart or add to your regular prayer practices and share with others what you learn along the way.

ASK!

In Luke 11:5-8, Jesus further teaches his disciples about prayer using a parable to talk about how prayer involves the actions of asking, searching, and knocking. Think about how it feels to go to ask someone for help. First you must get over your own fear, then find someone to ask, then actually do the asking. You need to ask, search, and knock.

When Jesus taught the disciples to pray, it helped them to see the character and nature of the one to whom we pray. God is like a neighbor who answers a friend who is not ashamed to ask. God is also like a perfect parent who seeks to give only good things to their child. In your prayer time, think about the nature of the God to whom you are praying.

Trace your hand on a piece of paper. Make a list of spiritual needs that you are seeking in your life and write them on the hand. Include the spiritual needs of those close to you and concentrate on how those needs might be fulfilled. Each day pray the Lord's Prayer, adding the items on your handprint. Be sure that you do not think of this as a grocery list of wants but rather spiritual needs that will help you to be closer to God. As you pray the Lord's Prayer, visualize all Christians – past, present, and future – praying with you.

A Prayer For The Unit. Eternal Spirit, Life-giver, Pain-bearer, Love-maker, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, loving God, in whom is heaven; The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe! The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world! Your heavenly will be done by all created beings! Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trials too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

DEACONS

February is a time of year we think of chocolate, roses, people we love, friends, valentines, and naturally more chocolate. In your box of treasures high on the top shelf of your closet, do you have a valentine you have saved? When you open the box, does time stop and you think of the sender, remembering how you felt knowing this valentine was meant just for you.

In a recent sermon, Rev. Brenda, reminded us of how we can often remember a song long after we have forgotten many other things. The refrain along with a verse of a song of my childhood Sunday School days keeps running through my mind. 'Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so. Jesus loves me still today, Walking with me on my way, Wanting as a friend to give Light and Love to all who live.

This February celebrate the people special to you. A valentine is something to show we care for someone. Show your love deeply as a thank you to God who loves each of us - after all the Bible tells us so.

The Search Committee has continued to move forward over the last month. We have met with Tamara Mooreland, our regional minister, and have gained some valuable information from her about the search process and experience. We have also begun work in earnest on edits to the church profile and will continue to gather the needed information to give the most accurate depiction of our community here.

We are looking forward to what the coming months will bring! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact any of the committee members.

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO A LENTEN DEVOTIONAL BOOKLET

The season of Lent, preparation for Holy Week and Easter, begins on March 5. The Deacons and pastors would like to put together a Lenten devotional booklet made up of contributions from the congregation.

The theme: Challenge and Testing

What challenges your faith? What tests it? What does tested faith feel like? How are you sustained through such experiences? Are there particular practices, prayers, thoughts, readings (Scriptures, poems, books, quotes) that you draw upon? What would you most like to share with others about this aspect of being a person of faith?

Please submit brief items – your own words or something else that you would like to share –and we'll compile them all into a booklet for the congregation's use during Lent.

You may e-mail them to Meghan Young at meghan@rhccucc.org, or leave written material with the church office or one of the pastors.

The submission deadline is Sunday, February 23

Global and Local Mission News

"All you need is love. But a little chocolate now and then doesn't hurt." –
Charles M. Schulz

It's February! The ground is white, the air is cold, and the stores are red with Valentine's Day items. There are varying opinions, but I love this holiday. It is a day reserved for love, compassion, and remembering those who are important in our lives. As a child, my mother always gave us a small box of chocolates and a card and to this day, she still does. Small gestures like this can seem so insignificant, but to the person who receives them, it may be the difference between feeling alone and knowing you are not. Love is such a powerful force that is so easy to share...visiting a relative, a shut in, or a local food shelter, or just telling your friends and family how much you appreciate them are all great way to spread the love in our hearts to those who may need it. Bringing chocolate doesn't hurt either...

Saturday, October 4th

Sadly, this year we are saying goodbye to two of our fair committee members - Phyllis Wilkey & James Stevens. We thank them for their many years of service and hard work on the Committee. This leaves us with two openings - one for Chair of the Committee and a member. If you are interested in being part of, or heading this group of talented, and dedicated men and women please contact the Nominating Committee or any of our members.

Phyllis Wilkey, James Stevens, Neal Cox, Elaine Somes, Lynn McKenna, Don Pagnucco, Polly Pagnucco, Candy Smith, Nancy Flynn, Marsha Hoffman.

LANDSCAPING

The Trustees would like to enlist the help of our church members in beautifying the Church property. Certain services are hired, but those cover just the basics- and our Church property could look so much better! We know many members have gardening knowledge, and we hope you will share those skills. We want to create a Landscaping Committee to plan & to plant. We can use any amount of volunteer time. This will be a new committee, so details will be worked out, but members will report to & be supported by the Trustees. Please contact Hilaire Leavitt (halx@rcn.com) or any Trustee. Spring is coming!

Christmas Open House:

What an enjoyable event! Quite different, in that it was based on area artists who displayed their beautiful paintings. Musicians and poets were also there. I would like to personally thank past chairman of the Board of Missions, Lynn Lataille, and current member Cindy Hunt for attending. I feel it is very important that the Board of Missions keeps a strong personal partnership with the Christian Activities Council.

Housing:

Edgewood Street: We have finally sold two condos!! We have a ways to go, but the future looks brighter.

Deerfield Avenue: We are currently rehabbing a two-family home. There are residents who are very interested in purchasing this home.

Irving Street: The Christian Activities Council is in discussion with Habitat for Humanity to partner with us to build a new home. Many of our members and clergy worked diligently to build four new homes on Irving Street.

Operation Winter Coats:

I would like to thank from my heart Carman Coleman, General Manager, and all the staff at Best Cleaners in Rocky Hill for donating 400 coats to the Christian Activities Council. Thanks also to our Executive Director, the Rev. Edwin Ayala, and staff member Pat Johnson who heads the Hartford Community Development Initiative. These coats couldn't have come at a better time with record low temperatures this winter.

Rev, Edwin Ayala has informed the Board and Council that Michele Mudrick, our health care organizer, has accepted a position with the CT Conference to become the CT Conference legislative liason. We will surely miss Michele's outstanding leadership and enthusiasm.

God Bless,

Rich Pawlich-Pagliccio

February 2014:

Presence in Troubled Times

Written by Matthew Fehse

February 1, 2014

God will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

Isaiah 58:11

In December I travelled to work with partners who suffered damages from Typhoon Haiyan (known as Typhoon Yolanda in the Philippines). Bethany Hospital, founded by The United Church of Christ Philippines (UCCP), a Global Ministries partner, suffered significant damages. Flooding surges reached the top of the second floor destroying most of the equipment and toppling the emergency generator - rendering the hospital ineffective. In spite of this, Bethany continues to serve, offering free medicine and consultations for walk-in patients.

Bethany opened its doors to Doctors Without Borders and a French medical team from Medecins San Frontieres. A water filtration system was installed and free water given to all the people who came from all corners to get barrels filled. It was really great. Bethany is also a site for field coordination and a gathering point for pastors from congregations around the area.

Bethany frequently sends out teams to surrounding communities for trauma healing and stress debriefing. For children, there are games, one in particular called "Balay (Home), Baguio (Storm), Bata (Children)." It is similar to musical chairs and children run around screaming and giggling, but when someone calls out "Baguio!" they have to change homes made up of two other children facing one another holding hands for a roof. This is followed by children sharing how they feel about changing homes because of the storm. Adults find singing and small group discussion places to process feelings and hopes while talking about what to do with the immediate future.

There is a tremendous amount of work ahead, but God's love is present in the laughter, in the distribution of food, in the community of people who offer support, like you. Please continue to pray and support Global Ministries and the UCCP efforts here. This road we walk with our partner will be a very long one.

Matthew Fehse, Global Mission Intern, serves with the human rights desk of the United Church of Christ in the Philippines and has been working on relief efforts around Typhoon Haiyan.
