We will recognize and celebrate in worship the academic achievements of members and friends who have graduated from high school through post-graduate programs. We will take the opportunity to recognize and celebrate the Great-grandfathers in our congregation and remind ourselves to hold them close in our hearts and cherish them as a gift from God. Please plan to attend these services so you can join in the celebration. We recognized and celebrated our Great-grandmothers in worship on Mother's Day. The Deacons made a donation of $100 to the Interval House, in honor of our Great-grandmothers. The Deacons honored the 2013 Confirmation Class, their families, and mentors with a dinner. ## Global and Local Mission News

“Just as a candle cannot burn without fire, men cannot live without a spiritual life” - Buddha

This quote from Buddha is one that I often think of when we are in the midst of Mission events here at RHCC. Programs like service days at Peter’s Retreat, mission speakers, and many more, have such a deeper meaning to me because we are participating as a faith based group. We always make time for reflection and discussion that seem to transform the “work” into another way to worship our ever present God.

This year, RHCC is the recipient of the Hands on Hartford Faith-Based Organization Volunteer Award and I could not be more proud of all of our members and teams who have donated their time, talent, and treasure throughout the program years. It is wonderful to be recognized in this way by our partners at Hands on Hartford and we are humbled and grateful for their support in our mission!

In Faith,
Meghan Montana
Chair – Board for Missions

Upcoming Events:

On August 18th we will be hosting Global Missionary Tim Rose... look for more information about his visit with us in the coming months!

New Programs:

In May, the Missions Board approved a $1,500 donation to an organization called BOTS Pots. This program is an extension of the Beat On The Street (BOTS) program that publishes a street newspaper written and sold by people who are now or have been homeless. BOTS Pots grows vegetables in pots located in low income neighborhoods in Hartford. They place large pots of organic vegetables (plants), usually at churches, as near to the street as possible. They then train individuals from shelters or supportive housing to care for the plants and pay them to do so. Artists paint the pots to create works of art, and people are free to pick the vegetables whenever they are ripe. RHCC’s donation has cared for the new placement and training for 3 new BOTS Pots this year!

Since last month, your generosity has helped the following:

Rocky Hill Youth and Family Services	$500
Cromwell Children's Home	$600
Hartford Seminary 250 club	$250
Charter Oak Cultural Center (BOTS Pots program)	$1,500
Silver Lake Scholarships	$400
Silver Lake Golf Tournament	$100

Your Board For Missions Members: Meghan Montana – Chair, Kari-McCaw-Blaise – Secretary, David Bell - Treasurer, Bob Carberry, Lisa Eleck, Cindy Hunt, Thomas Kainamura, Sarah Mosure, Wendy Ware.

ANOTHER SUPERB ROCKY HILL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH FUNDRAISING EVENT
FOR
WALK AGAINST HUNGER

On Sunday May 5th 2013, a small group of 6 walkers joined over 4,000 other walkers in downtown Hartford for the 30th Annual Walk Against Hunger.

I am thrilled to say that the walk was very successful, with Foodshare meeting its fundraising goal of $650,000 – a fantastic achievement. Contributing to this goal and for the second consecutive year, RHCC demonstrated its strong commitment to Foodshare by exceeding the goal of $2,00 and raising a total of $3,315 including corporate and Chase Foundation Challenge matching contributions. This success was due to the wonderful effort from the fundraising team including Bob Carberry, Julia O'Connor, Meghan Young, Kari Blaise and Thomas and Chris Kainamura along with all the members of RHCC that generously supported the walk.

If you missed this year's walk, we look forward to you joining us in May 2014!

Sincerely,

Thomas Kainamura

FAITH FORMATION @ RHCC

S.P.I.R.I.T. Corner Check-in:

Church School

May marked the end of our final curriculum unit of the year, Go and Make Disciples. During this unit we looked at three important themes: what it means to be witnesses, God's definition of inclusiveness, and the gift of baptism. We explored what it means to be a disciple of the risen Christ. Many thanks to all the teachers, Board for Faith Formation members, and volunteers who helped make this year one of spirit filled faith formation!

The children and youth of RHCC have also begun planning and writing worship for Children's Sunday, reflecting on the ways we have formed in our faith over the last year. Over the last 9 months we have explored what it means to be a Community of Peace through the scriptures of Isaiah, we have marveled at the strength of Mary and Elizabeth as we heard the story of their first Christmas, we have explored God's gift of Baptism, we have walked with Jesus on the Road to Emmaus, and we have heard the call to discipleship. We look forward to sharing on Children's Sunday, June 9th, what it means to be a disciple of the risen Christ.

Gatherings

The Children and Youth Talent Show, an annual favorite, was a great night of music, dance, singing, and sharing of talents and gifts. Thank you to all of our children and youth who helped out or performed, sharing their talents and gifts with us. And a special thanks to all those who organized, planned, and provided food for the talent show, especially Dave Lewis and Elaine Somes.

We also hope that everyone will join us for Koinonia 2013. For those wondering, Koinonia is a Greek word, used frequently in scripture, meaning communion by intimate participation. Koinonia is in fellowship, in breaking bread, worship, song, justice and peace making, and any moment where we come together in truth and love, opening ourselves up to the presence of God. Koinonia is a community about living and loving fully. Koinonia 2013, is a vacation bible school, for the whole church family. It will be four nights of spirit filled faith formation as we tell our story! Keep an eye out for more details.

It's Coming - Koinonia 2013!

Join us at RHCC for a 4 night (5:30-7:30 PM), intergenerational Vacation Bible School, "Koinonia 2013", for the whole church family, from June 24th-27th. This summer you are invited to renew and spark your faith as we join together for fun, food, fellowship, and faith formation. Separate faith formation programming will be available for children, youth, and adults.

Please mark your calendars and sign-up in Chapin Hall or by emailing meghan@rhccucc.org.

NURSERY VOLUNTEERS: Nursery Volunteers are needed for June, July, and August. If you are interested in volunteering in the Nursery during Sunday morning worship, please contact a member of the Childcare Committee (Kari McCaw-Blaise, Liz Pulling, and Liz Reed-Swale) or email them at RHCCchildcare@gmail.com for more information. You can also sign-up outside the Nursery.

CONFIRMATION

The 2012-2013 Confirmation Class were confirmed and joined the membership of RHCC on May 19, 2013. Confirmation weekend, was a wonderful and meaningful experience of faith, fellowship, family, and community. On Saturday, May 18th, the confirmands and their families came together for worship in the sanctuary. We took time to reflect on our year together and gave thanks for the mentors, families, and communities that have helped our Confirmands to grow in their faith. We were also treated by the Deacons to a delicious dinner.

On Confirmation Sunday, the Confirmands wrote and led worship. They thoughtfully shared their faith while bringing us together as a community. The Holy Spirit was truly present. Their reflections spoke of how Christ abides in each of us, the peace Christ offers us, and how that peace challenges and invites us to be disciples sharing our gifts. What a joy and blessing it is to have these young people as a part of this community! We look forward to the ways in which they will continue to share their gifts with us.

June 2013: The Blessing of Hope

Written by Phyllis Byrd

“Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” Philippians 4:8

“Just Communities” is the department at the Organization of African Instituted Churches (OAIC) with which I work as the Director. There are many projects Just Communities has undertaken. The “One People Campaign” is our peace initiative in Kenya and many African countries, to teach and promote peaceful lives and approaches to controversy, especially during and following elections. Just Communities produced and distributed copies of “Young African Express,” an educational magazine to the young people in the community. Young African Express is a comic booklet which addresses issues often present in communities and discusses the role of church members in it.

Recently we visited a group of women in Kawangwar, an informal settlement in Nairobi. The women are HIV-positive and have initiated an income-generating project to support themselves and their children. There we met the four year old daughter of one of the women, who had suffered third degree burns to her head and face. Blessing is her name. Her mother explained she did not have enough money to pay the price of the procedure to treat Blessing’s burns. Now Blessing’s condition was more serious, she could not close her eyes to sleep and she had difficulty breathing because the burns had affected her nose and mouth. Just Communities contacted the Comprehensive Rehabilitation Services in Uganda (CoRSU), which performs low cost surgery to children with disabilities. Blessing and her mother traveled twelve hours by bus from Nairobi to Kampala, Uganda arriving early on Sunday morning. They had an appointment to see a doctor at the hospital the next day. The doctor felt surgery was urgent because there were infections developing in Blessings’ eyes. The surgery was scheduled for two days later. The doctors successfully reconstructed much of Blessings’ face and more surgery is to come. We thank God for the many people who made Blessings’ medical treatment possible.

God, we pray that communities in Kenya will be able to focus on their daily lives in peace. We pray for Blessing as she continues to heal and recover, and we pray for the work of Just Communities that it may continue its impact making its among peoples in Kenya.

Phyllis Byrd serves in Nairobi Kenya, as a theological educator with the Presbyterian Church of East Africa as a theological educator. This is a joint appointment with the Presbyterian Church, USA and Global Ministries.

Educational Forum: - Executive Director Ed Ayala and the Christian Activities Council, sponsored this faith based forum. Reverend Ayala, and Superintendent of the Hartford School District, Dr. Christina Kishimoto, spoke on the reforming of the strategies and goals of the Hartford School System. Also it was stressed that community leaders, parents and neighborhoods must come together to ensure each child receives an excellent education. The forum was well attended by educational leaders, faith based people and parents. I was impressed by Dr. Kishimoto and her dedication and leadership to the students.

Public Safety Meeting: - Denise Best, one of our staff employees led this very important subcommittee of the comprehensive community redevelopment committee. There were representatives of neighborhood leaders and the Hartford Police Department. The one subject that received the most attention was released inmates who were not citizens of Hartford but are put in the city streets upon their completed sentences. This continued practice overwhelms the social resource department of the city of Hartford. It was decided to invite the Commissioner of the Department of Corrections to our next meeting.

Housing: - The Edgewood Street Condominiums continue to be a major problem for the Christian Activities Council. Ralph Knighton, Tori Hamilton and Reverend Ayala are putting their best efforts forward to try and sell these units.

Staff:- The Christian Activities Council staff always go above and beyond to serve the poor and needy people of Hartford.

Peace,

Rich Pawlich-Pagliccio
Delegate and member Board of Directors

"The Station Agent"

Patricia Clarkson, Peter Dinklage and Bobby Cannavale star in The Station Agent, a comedy about friendship that will have you smiling long after the final credits.

Fin McBride, a loner with a passion for trains, inherits an abandoned train station in the middle of nowhere - a place that suits him just fine because all he wants is to be left alone. But that seems unlikely when he discovers his isolated depot is more like Grand Central Station. There's Olivia, a distracted and troubled artist, and Joe, a friendly Cuban with an insatiable hunger for conversation. With absolutely nothing in common, they find themselves coming together in a friendship none of them could foresee.

Sneak preview for July: Beginners starring Christopher Plummer and Ewan McGregor

Dear Friends,
Words cannot express my gratitude for my employment at RHCC for the last 15 years. I certainly never expected to leave so abruptly, but I felt a calling that was so strong that I had to pay attention to it. God gives us seasons and then calls us elsewhere for His purposes. I still don't know what that purpose is, but I felt the need to be ready when He makes it known to me.

For all who came to my farewell gathering, for those who sent emails, called, prayed for me, send cards and well wishes – I thank you. And to the congregation-thank you for the gift certificate to On the Border. My favorite place to eat! I will enjoy many bowls of Chicken tortilla soup (my personal favorite). I also thank all who supported me by volunteering your time in the office or just stopped by with a kind word or to say, "Hi, I was thinking about you and decided to drop in." (You know who you are).

Retirement has not been as I had envisioned it. I don't know how I ever had time to work. Many of you told me I would say that and you were right! I will continue to help Dan surveying, but I will now have time to clean my house, get ready for Haiti in August, visit with Meagan when she comes home for a visit this summer, and much more.

I want to wish you all well and will continue my prayers for you and for RHCC in this transition time and beyond. Thank you again for the opportunity to minister to you through my work. It was an honor to serve you, but most of all I give glory to God for the opportunity. His purpose was fulfilled.

Blessings,
Carol
