From the Interim Senior Pastor

"Remember the Sabbath, to Keep It....."

Recently I met a pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, which believes that Jesus is coming back again soon (that's the "Adventist" part) and that Saturday is the true Sabbath day for Christians (that's the Seventh-Day part). Saturday, not Sunday, is the seventh day of the week, and since, according to the first creation story in Genesis (there are two different ones), God "rested on the seventh day, after all the work He had done in creation," then humans also are to rest on the seventh day. Hence a Saturday Sabbath. The pastor I met was adamant about this.

Since I don't take the Genesis creation stories literally, I am not too concerned about what counts as the literal seventh day. I am more concerned about whether the concept of Sabbath itself counts at all with us, anymore. Trying to find anybody who gets out from under their working, their calendar, their computer, and all related striving for one whole day each week, including myself, is next to impossible. Now that we can have work literally at our fingertips, since most of us carry around phones that are also computers, we are almost never disconnected from our usual daily activity long enough to call it anything like a "Sabbath." If true Sabbath is meant to free us up long enough, once in every week, that we rest, renew, and regain perspective on what goes on the other six days, then many of us don't have it, on any day. A few hours here or there aren't enough. From respites that brief, we readily snap back into a sabbathless mind, which is often a fatigued mind, which then becomes an unreceptive mind.

And despite the fact that in Hebrew Scripture, Sabbath-keeping is one of the Ten Commandments ("Remember the Sabbath, to keep it holy"), even churches can be sabbathless places. We too buy into our culture's certainty that busyness = worth, that more activity must be inherently better than less activity. Maybe it's the remnant of that Puritan heritage that equated idleness with sin: if you're not productively occupied, you are vulnerable to the devil. How on earth would you ever take a day off, if that's what you really believed? That's one way we imagine our indispensability.

But there's the problem in a way, that we are so concerned with the importance of our own roles and the production that comes from them that we slip from any true reading of grace, which, by definition, never depends on us or the quantity of our work or the roles we inhabit. Until we know that, we don't want to let go of our activity, because we think so much is riding on it, including our very value and significance, even, perhaps, to God. We might say we believe that nothing we can do will make God love us less, and nothing we can do will make God love us more. But we don't live that way.

Sometimes, it is summer that helps us. If ever we give ourselves permission to lighten up a bit and keep some Sabbath time, some actual unfilled time, it might be summer. Someone once referred to the purpose of a Sabbath as "time spent remembering what time is for." I hope these days and weeks of summer might offer something of that to all of us, if we'll take it. I'm pretty sure we need it. It's not for nothing that Sabbath-keeping is a commandment. "Remember the sabbath, to keep it holy." And wholly.

Faithfully,

Rev. Brenda

Services at 10:00 a.m. in air-conditioned Chapin Hall, through Sunday, September 1. Nursery care is available in Room 4.

Listed below are the several lectionary texts for each Sunday. The lectionary is a three-year cycle of Scripture readings shared in common by most major Christian denominations. (The preaching text for any given Sunday may or may not be taken from these.) Reading them and looking for thematic connections is one way to do some Biblical exploration.

July 6

Fourth Sunday after Pentecost; Communion

Gen. 24:34-38, 42-49, 58-67; Ps. 45:10-17 or
Song of Sol. 2:8-13 or Zech 9:9-12; Ps. 145:8-14,
Rom. 7:15-25a; Matt. 11:16-19, 25-30

July 13 through August 24: Summer Sermon Series

"Living Stones: Imagining the Future of the Church"

A series of sermons meant to engage us together in imagining how, and reflecting on why, the church might move forward – in a time very different from the past.

July 13

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

1 Peter 2:1-10 "Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house..."

What would it mean to be a church of living stones, letting ourselves be built by God, not our own hands, a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices?

July 20

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Ezekiel 37:1-14 "The hand of the Lord came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones...He said to me 'Mortal, can these bones live?'"

What would it mean to truly believe God can breathe new life into our dry bones? What would it mean to be a church, willing to go through the noise, and rattling, and growth, as God's spirit breathes life?

July 27

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost; Laity Sunday
Members of the congregation will lead worship.

Romans 12:1-8 "Don't be conformed to the world, be transformed by the renewal of your minds... We are like one body, with many parts but not all with the same function."

What would it mean to be a church with a presence in the world that is not just like the world, and where a variety of gifts are discovered, used and welcomed?

August 3

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost; Communion

Acts 17:22-34 "The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands."

Jesus said nothing about "Church" as an institution, but much about faith and love. What would it mean to be a church not tied to the bounds of membership and building, but living by Jesus' great commission to go and make disciples?

August 10 Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Acts 3:1-16 "One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer...And a man lame from birth was being carried in... And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them, but Peter said, 'I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk.'"

What would it mean to stop and look up as we dash to our "temples" (jobs, committee meetings, resume building activities, etc.) and offer the love of God, recognizing that God calls us to be in the world?

August 17 Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Isaiah 56:1, 6-8 " 'My house shall be called a house of prayer, for all peoples,' says God, who gathers the outcasts. 'I will gather yet others besides those already gathered.'"

What would it mean to understand the church as primarily a "house of prayer," and God as a God who means to gather in the ones who aren't here yet?

August 24 Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Luke 5:1-11 "Jesus said to Simon, 'Push out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' It was no sooner said than done – a huge haul of fish, so many it strained the nets."

What would it mean to understand our core purpose as the church to be about depth, our main task as "going deeper" ?

August 31 Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Ex. 3:1-15; Ps. 105:1-6, 23-26 or
Jer. 15:15-21; Ps. 26:1-8; Rom. 12:9-21; Matt. 16:21-28

S.P.I.R.I.T. Corner Check-in:

Church School

On Children's Worship Sunday, June 8th, the S.P.I.R.I.T. Church School planned, wrote, and led worship. The service held on Pentecost, focused on what it means to journey with God, and how we welcome God and God's people. The Pre-K and K-1 Classes, greeted, ushered, played bells, and sent us out in peace with a beautiful benediction. The 2nd-3rd Grade class reminded us to be generous givers and beautifully called us to worship. The 4th-5th Grade class welcomed us with scripture raining down red balloons on us (also known as tongues of fire), led us in prayer, shared the story of Paul, Silas, Lydia, and the Jailer. Our 6th-8th graders led us in the prayers of the people, and shared from their hearts how they have been welcomed, and how we can be a more welcoming community of faith. Throughout the service Liz Reed-Swale led us in song, as we shared the music we sing in chapel. There was also time to give thanks for our passionate and seemingly tireless teachers and volunteers, who help us grow in faith. What a joyous spirit filled worship!

Youth Group

This month the Youth Group participated in a unique service project through The World Needs More Love Letters (www.moreloveletters.com) and wrote letters of compassion to strangers. We enjoyed a cook out and pool party after all the hard work of children's Sunday. And we even got together to do some part for the Youth Room. We are looking forward to some more meet-ups during the summer.

All Youth Group events for the year will be open to 6th-12th graders, and when appropriate 6th-8th graders and 9th-12th graders will break off for separate discussion groups. We will meet several times throughout the year for Youth Group Night Out events and service projects. Noah's Table now meets twice a month on Sunday evenings from 5 PM – 6:30 PM for dinner, fellowship, and faith formation.

NURSERY VOLUNTEERS: Nursery Volunteers are needed. If you are interested in volunteering in the Nursery during Sunday morning worship, please contact a member of the Childcare Committee or email them at RHCCchildcare@gmail.com for more information. You can also sign-up outside the Nursery.

S.P.I.R.I.T. Summer Volunteers – If you are interested in helping with any of our summer programming, whether it be teaching, baking, sharing a craft, telling a story, sharing music, assisting with the nursery, being a safe church volunteer, coordinating, or setting up, please email Meghan at meghan@rhccucc.org. Volunteers are needed for 6/29, 8/10, 8/24.

S.P.I.R.I.T. Meet-Up: Take Me Out to the Ball Game!

Saturday, August 2, 7 PM at The New Britain Rock Cats

Join us for Faith and Family night at the New Britain Rock Cats. Tickets include access to pre-game concert. For more information and ticket prices, contact Meghan Young at Meghan@rhccucc.org.

Small Group Ministry at RHCC: Summer Faith Formation Opportunities

Join a small group to explore and enrich your faith in new ways!

ALL Church Summer Reading:

Liberating Hope.

Join with your church family as we read together Liberating Hope: Daring to Renew the Mainline Church, written by Michael S. Piazza and Cameron B. Trimble.

Liberating Hope provides concrete and tangible 21st century insight to those churches looking to renew their congregations through hope and optimism rooted in the resurrection. Based on the successful work that Piazza and Trimble have done through The Center for Progressive Renewal, this book provides accurate and strategic evidence that the decline of the mainline, progressive church can be slowed and even reversed, despite the challenges it is facing. Liberating Hope is both thought provoking and an easy read, so don't forget to bring it with you on your summer vacation!

Copies are available to check-out from the church office. Small discussion groups will be forming in late summer/early fall.

Mission & A Movie:

A Place At The Table.

Sunday, July 13, 12 PM – 2:30 PM

Chapin Hall

Hosted by Missions & Faith Formation

50 Million Americans - 1 in 4 children - don't know where their next meal is coming from. A Place at the Table tells the powerful stories of three such Americans, who maintain their dignity even as they struggle just to eat. In a riveting journey that will change forever how you think about the hungry, A Place at the Table shows how the issue could be solved forever, once the American public decides - as they have in the past - that ending hunger is in the best interests of us all. Join us for a viewing of A Place at the Table, and a conversation about hunger in our community and how we can work together to end hunger.

Small Group Gatherings:

Pilgrim People. Pilgrim Churches.

Sundays, July 27 & August 10

12 PM – 1 PM, Fiorilli Room

It has been said there are two types of people who show up in church on Sunday: Tourists and Pilgrims. Tourists are those who are spiritual but not religious; those who are shopping for a church home; those who tend to be spectators rather than participants; those who are observers but are not invested. Pilgrims are those who have committed their lives, even though they may not have all the answers; those whose faith is moving, growing, and maturing; those who engage in spiritual practices that foster growth. Join us for a discussion group rooted in scripture that explores how we can be a pilgrim church of pilgrim people. Discussion topics include: prayer, presence, service, generosity, spiritual growth, hospitality, discernment, art and beauty, justice, and diversity.

No preparation necessary.

SALT.

Tuesdays, July 15 & August 19

7 PM – 8 PM, Chapin Hall

Join us for a short film, followed by a discussion. Through beautiful, deeply spiritual, films made by the SALT project, we will more deeply explore our faith. SALT is a not-for-profit project dedicated to reclaiming and sharing the beauty of Christian life through film, photography, music, poetry, and ideas. SALT aims to build up a community of conversation and resource-sharing that, like salt itself, preserves and seasons the best and most beautiful of the Christian tradition. No preparation necessary.

Open On-Going Groups:

Art + Faith.

It has been said that creativity requires faith, and that art itself is an incarnational activity. The Art + Faith Group will meet twice a month to explore scripture and faith through the arts. The group will look at the work of various artists as well as engage in individual and group art projects. Additionally the Art + Faith Group will work with the pastors to design Altar Scapes and incorporate visual elements into worship. No artistic skill or experience needed. Please contact Stephanie Heneghan (860-529-4672) or Nancy Rolfe (860-257-3489) for more information.

Sign-Up for Small Groups in Chapin Hall or contact the Church Office.

Thank You.

Dear Rocky Hill Congregational Church, UCC,

After my Ecclesiastical Council in March, Louise Butts, one of our RHCC Hartford Association Delegates came up to me and asked how RHCC had shaped me, as I had talked about the churches I had served and attended that had helped me form in my faith. Rocky Hill is the 4th church I have had the honor and privilege of serving, but it is the 1st church where I have been called "Pastor". I remember when I started here 5 years ago, being taken aback when folks began referring to me that way. That title holds much trust and responsibility, and I am grateful for the trust and support you have given me as I have been shaped in that capacity. On June 14th, I was ordained in our sanctuary. It was an affirmation of the ministry I have been doing for the last 12 years of my life. I am so thankful for all who were present in body or in spirit for that celebration. Thank you for the ways you all welcomed visitors, made sure the church was clean, greeted, provided worship leadership, and organized a beautiful and tasty reception. I also love the communion set, stole, and necklace (with RHCC and the date of my ordination), that you all gifted me. I will treasure them.

In ministry,
Meghan

DEACONS

In June, Graduations, Great-Grandfathers, and Children's Day were celebrated. The Deacons made a $100 donation to the Rocky Hill Veterans Home Recreation Department to honor the Great-Grandfathers. To many it may seem that boards and committees take a long summer break – but in reality church programs continue and planning begins for our return to a full schedule in September.

Summer is a wonderful opportunity to re-focus and re-energize our faith. Recently I passed a church with a sign announcing Vacation Bible School. Each summer of my childhood found me attending Vacation Bible School for two weeks. It was an educational and fun experience. And like school, we usually had homework – to memorize a bible verse.

Do you have a Bible verse that is meaningful to you? Mine is Micah 6:8 -And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. I believe that God is telling me to simply do what is right.

Have a wonderful and safe summer. Remember – the doors to our beautiful church are open and we are here to welcome each Sunday this summer!

Gail Tine, Co-Senior Deacon

A REMINDER FROM THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

Please continue to make your current pledge through the end of 2014. We will have a new stewardship program in the fall and then our new pledge year will run from January to December.

If you have any questions feel welcome to contact the members of the Stewardship Committee.

News from your Fair Committee

REMINDER FOR YOUR CALENDAR:
The Country Fair is going to be held on Saturday, October 4th, 2014
from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

We will be bringing back all your favorites: Bake Shop, Candy Shop, Farmers Market, Kitchen Shop, Jewelry Booth, Quilt Raffle, Sew Country, Snack Bar, Silent Auction and the Tea Room.

In other news.....We want to thank all of you who supported our May Breakfast & Plant Sale. Marsha Hoffman and her "team" prepared a delicious breakfast - serving over 45 people. Linda Gilbert/Gilbert Farms generously donated a wonderful array of flower and vegetable plants for us to sell. Lynn Mckenna, our in-house artist, donated a beautiful set of hand-painted tray tables and the lucky raffle winner was Deb Copes! We were able to raise $1000 and want to thank the fair committee members and volunteers who helped make the day possible.

Our Memorial Day Refreshment Stand was once again a "hit" among parade watchers. The "You're-in-luck with a Buck" theme generated $300. We had a beautiful day and it was a joy to cheer for the many members of the congregation who participated in the parade.

Phyllis Wilkey and Jim Stevens have left the committee, and we want to thank them for their years of service. We appreciate all their hard work and dedication to our fund-raising efforts.

Are you interested in joining the Fair Committee? We are looking for new members - it's an opportunity to be a part of the largest fundraiser our church presents to the community and work with a group of enthusiastic members of our congregation. If you are interested in joining, please contact any committee member.

Neal Cox, Lynn Mckenna, Don Pagnucco, Polly Pagnucco, Candy Smith, Elaine Somes, Nancy Flynn (treasurer), Marsha Hoffman (consultant).

Thank you From the family of Nita Madden-Estra,

We want to thank Jan Lacava and the Heavenly Hosts for the wonderful reception that followed the memorial service for Nita. Thank you to all who helped by baking and setting up. Meghan's memorial message was very touching and the music that Mary played was beautiful.
